JUBILEE EXHIBITION, 1950

FOREWORD.

The W.I.A.C. celebrates its half-century with an international exhibition which covers the whole of this fruitful period. We hope it may emphasise the distinctive position occupied by women painters today, and their contribution to contemporary painting. While the club was formed in order to provide women painters with opportunities for exhibition which they lacked in 1900, one of its chief aims at present is to promote the interchange of work by women of all nationalities.

We are, therefore, very pleased to welcome work from Italy for this year's guest section. The selection has been made by a special committee consisting of Dr. Fernanda Wittgens, Superintendent of the Art Galleries of Lombardy; Dr. Palma Bucarelli, Director of the Modern Art Gallery, Rome; and Dr. Noemi Gabrielli, Director of Superintendents of the Art Galleries of Piedmont.

We are indebted to the good offices of the Italian Embassy in London for bringing from Italy this series of exhibits which gives so much evidence of a common outlook in the painting of our two countries.
